

Katrin M. Berger from Bremen, Germany

Katrin Berger works with her first mainstay as a team leader at the youth welfare services and with her second mainstay self-employed as a SF therapist, mediator and trainer in Germany.

She is passionate about promoting cooperation and a solution-focused, supportive culture in teams and between different network partners, so that they enjoy working together and make use of their existing potentials.