

Sebastien Vernieuwe

is an Educationalist youth-counselor and Solution Focused Psychotherapist. He is Chief Counselor in a center with groups, youngsters and families referred by juvenile court, runs his own private practice and non-profit organization offering psychotherapy to financially challenged children and families.

Sebastien is a member of the training staff at the Korzybski Institute in Bruges, where he feels privileged to work closely with a team of experienced Solution Focussed trainers, including pioneers Luc Isenbaert, Erwin De Bisscop and Myriam Lefevere de Ten Hove.

Sebastien has published several articles in Flemish Social Work magazines as well as interviews with Barry Duncan and Andrew Turnell.

He has been training a great variety of professionals as well through the Korzybski Institute as through years of In-house training sessions in several large Youth-care organisations. In 2015 Vienna and 2017 Frankfurt he offered workshops regarding aspects of the Bruges Model for Solution Focused work (Naturalistic Interventions and Therapeutic and Relationship Factors) and recently he was invited by Osta to give a two day workshop in Riga-Latvia on “Using the SF approach working with families at risk.”
