

CURRICULUM VITAE

SOPHIE TREPANIER

PERSONALIA

Born 13.10.1961 at Maniwaki (Canada)
Married to Luc Isebaert
Address: Jules Peurquaetstraat 93, 8400 Oostende, Belgium
Telephone: +32 484232130
e-mail: sophie.trepanier@gmail.com

STUDIES:

1981-87	University of Montreal	Master in Music (Organ)
1987-89	Conservatory Montreal Prof. Raymond Daveluy Prof. Bernard Lagacé	First Prize in Organ
1989-94	Lemmensinstituut Prof. Chris Dubois	High Diploma and First Prize in Organ
1992-94	Lemmensinstituut	Pedagogical diploma
1994-96	Conservatorium Brussel Prof. Raphaël D'Haene	First Prize Counterpoint
1996-99	Conservatory Gent Prof. Claude Coppens, piano Prof. Jaak Maertens, fuga Prof. Godfried Raes, compositie	Master in Music (Piano)

TRAINING IN PSYCHOTHERAPY:

2001-2005: Certificate of Psychotherapy after the 4-year course in Solution-Focused Cognitive and Systemic Psychotherapy and in Ericksonian Hypnotherapy at the Korzybski Institute, Bruges.

TRAINING IN BODY- ORIENTED TECHNIQUES:

2012-2016: 4-year curriculum in Alexander Techniques, Bristol

FORMER POSITIONS:

1983-89	Assistant organist at the Cathedral "Marie-Reine du Monde", Montreal
1987-89	Assistant-organist at the Notre-Dame church, Montreal
1994-	Titulary Organist at the St-Gillis- and at the St-Walburga churches, Brugge

ORGAN COMPETITIONS:

- 1987 Finalis of the “Collège Royal Canadien des Organistes”
- 1994 Laureate of the International Organ competition of the Festival for Early Music of Flanders,
- 1996 Second Prize “Tornea Internazionale di Musica” in Rome
- 1898 Winner of the International Organ Competition “De Orgelkunst van Flor Peeters” in Belgium